

THE INDEPENDENT

The Big Six: Boutique beds in Brooklyn

by SOPHIE LAM | Friday 27 July 2012

The Wythe, Williamsburg

If you needed any convincing to cross the East River, The Wythe ought to help. This turn-of-the-century factory has dazzling views of the New York skyline that you won't enjoy holed up in Manhattan. Now reimaged as a luxury hotel, it sports industrial-luxe design: poured concrete, custom-designed wallpaper, exposed brickwork, timber ceilings and floor-to-ceiling windows. Reynard's Restaurant serves a rustic, meat-heavy menu, while The Ides rooftop bar mixes up cocktails late into the night.

The Wythe, 80 Wythe Avenue at North 11th, Williamsburg (001 718 460 8000; wythehotel.com). Doubles start at $230 (£153), room only.